Description:

This course examines the claim that there is a moral dimension to business decision-making. Through an understanding of traditional approaches to ethical theory, and discussion of historical and contemporary examples, students will examine and criticize moral issues that arise in business. The course will equip students with a knowledge of philosophical ethics and the critical skills necessary to make thoughtful evaluations of business practices.

Course Objectives:

By the end of the semester, each student will have . . .

- An understanding of the general issues likely to be encountered as a business professional
 - Assessment: Quizzes, Summaries, Mid-Term Essay, Presentation, Final Paper
- An acquaintance with some major theoretical views about the relation between individuals, corporations, and society
 - Assessment: Quizzes, Summaries, Mid-Term Essay, Final Paper
- An understanding of how to apply philosophical analyses to business practice
 - Assessment: Mid-Term Essay, Presentation, Final Paper
- An ability to construct arguments defending a moral position regarding business issues
 - Assessment: Mid-Term Essay, Final Paper

Grading:

Each student will be graded on (1) attendance, (2) ten quizzes, (3) two summaries, (4) one presentation, (5) one mid-term paper, and (6) one final paper. Beginning September 7th students will receive one point for each class attended. Each individual summary is worth 10 points for a total of 20 points. Each quiz will be worth 5 points for a total of 50 points. There will be one presentation, to be completed with a partner, worth 30 points. The October 17th mid-term essay will be out of 25 and the final paper will be graded out of 50. For policies concerning missed quizzes, presentations, or a late take-home exam, see the Policies for Late Work and Extra Credit below. In all, each student's final grade will be out of 200:

Attendance:	25
Quizzes:	50
Presentation:	30
Summaries:	20
Mid-Term Essay:	25
Final Paper:	50
Total:	200

Grading Scale (Letter Grade/Percentage):

A	95-100	C+	76-79
A-	90-94	C	70-75
B+	86-89	C-	64-69
B	80-85	D+	61-63
B-	76-79	D	58-60
		F	0-57

Important Dates:

Last Day to Withdraw: September 5th

Mid-Term Paper Due: 5:00 PM on October 17th

Final Paper Due: 12:00 PM on December 9th

Attendance Policy:

As already outlined in the Grading section, beginning on September 7th, one point will be given for each class attended for a total of 25 possible points. Presentations missed for unexcused reasons will not be able to be given at an alternative time unless arrangements are made beforehand. Summaries handed in late will lose one point per day late. Arrangements can be made with the instructor concerning any assignments (summaries, presentations, papers) completed late due to (1) severe health reasons (more than a cold, flu, or bodily ache), (2) jury duty, (3) religious obligations, or (4) university sanctioned activities and related travel. See the section below for more details concerning policies for late work.

Policies for Late Work and Extra Credit:

Because assignments will be handed in on D2L, there will be no excuse for late assignments. Presentations missed for unexcused reasons will not be able to be given at an alternative time unless arrangements are made beforehand. Summaries handed in late will lose one point per day late. For example, if the first summary is handed in on September 21st, it will not be able to receive more than 8/10. If the final paper is submitted late, one point will be deducted for every hour it is late. For example, a final paper submitted at 5:00 pm on December 9th will receive a maximum of 35/40. For work towards bonus marks, students must contact the instructor before or on October 17th.

Policy on Electronic Devices:

Students found using cellphones or computers in class, unless a clear reason is given – for translation, a disability, etc. – will be counted absent for the day.

Academic Dishonesty:

The college of Arts and Sciences and department policies on academic dishonesty will be enforced. Students can find the University Honor Code and Academic Integrity Policy here:
